

Creating Community Through Printmaking

Hands-on printmaking that inspires creativity, collaboration, and connection.

Iron Frog Press brings printmaking to people of all ages and skill levels. Founded by Master Printmaker Matt Bagley and Sharon Neel-Bagley, our programs invite participants to explore the process and try something new.

Everyone can take part and make something of their own.

Learn.
Create.
Print.

Anyone can make a print.

Participants experience the process from start to finish.

Everyone leaves with a print.

Printmaking Without Walls

We bring printmaking beyond the studio, tailoring each program to its audience, setting, and goals.

LET'S CREATE TOGETHER

We'd love to explore how Iron Frog Press could be part of your programming.
